Bats, Balls and Biscuits – A
Brief History of Cricket at the
Reading Biscuit
Factory by Martin
Bishop, pb, 159pp,
£7.50

Such was the success of the Huntley and Palmer's Biscuit Factory that Reading was known as the 'Biscuit Town' for 100 years dating back to the 1870s. Cricket and biscuits have always had a jolly time together and this story is testament to that. Bats, Balls and Biscuits will do what it says on the tin.
