

■ Hanging Heaton Cricket Club stages a special evening next Wednesday to launch an exhibition about the 125 years of the Bennett Lane club, 8pm start. Researchers from Huddersfield University have compiled a history of the club and players and league officials have been invited to an evening of nostalgia. The exhibition will stay in place until September while the evening will also see an antiques roadshow of memorabilia and 'cricket teas'.