[illegible] Wm. Isaac Bowerley, a great deal of the advantages, so far as English experts are concerned, will have been whittled down.

CRICKET.

GENEROUS OFFER BY MR. W. RAWSON SHAW, M.P.

A shield will be given at the end of the season to the club at the head of the League. The League is indebted for this to Mr. W. Rawson Shaw, M.P., who has generously agreed to defray the cost of the shield. The only condition Mr. Shaw makes is that any surplus funds made by the League shall go to the subscription to the Boys' Camp.
