

NORTHOWRAM FIELDS CC

WHO'S WHO

STEVE GOODWIN

Has put lots of work into the ground, the Club's junior set-up and the Evening League.

P. CROSSLAND

Scooped the 1988 Norman Bestow Memorial Trophy for Fields C.C. with 959 runs in the season. Also received the Bradford central League Division 2 batting prize.

DAVE GARSIDE

Club chairman who also specialises in ground maintenance and repairs.

CLIFF FOSTER

Playing for Northowram in 1991 he netted the Bradford Central League batting prize with 387 runs @ 77.4. The previously he had scooped the bowling award with 72 wickets @ 10.71.

ROBERT LARNER

Current 1st XI skipper.

IAN RUSHWORTH

Club loyalist who combines captaining the 2nd XI with editing the sports pages of the Halifax Courier.

IFTIKHAR ANJUM

Pakistani bowler who took 75 wickets in 2001 at an average of 11.00, and who went on to play for Spens Wood Victoria in the Bradford League. With a high-arm action modelled on Glenn McGrath, Iftikhar Anjum is another addition to Pakistan's seemingly endless production line of pace bowlers. He can bowl reverse-swing - a prerequisite for Pakistani bowlers, when the ball gets a bit rougher, with good control over his yorkers. He has taken over 200 first-class wickets.

PAUL BOTTOMLEY

Current star batter who once played in the Bradford League.

HEATH PHILLIPSON

He topped the Central Yorkshire League Division 4 batting charts in 2002 with 714 runs @ 71.40.

PETER ATKINSON

Current Club president and ex-Bradford League player.

LEE MONTGOMERY

Won the Bradford Central League Division 2 batting gong in 1997 with 631 runs at 52.58 for Fields C.C..

MALCOLM ELLIOT

Took 51 wickets for Fields in 1981 @ 7.98. chr

CHRIS THOMPSON

Graduated through the Northowram junior set-up.
Gained Bradford Central League representative honours and is a prolific wicket-taker.

THE HIRDS

Doug Hird is the current Club secretary. His son, Steve Hird, took 39 wickets in 1997 at 9.64 and now plays in London.

S. ELLIOT

Star batsman who came through the ranks at Northowram.

THE MITCHELLS

Steve is an ex-Club secretary; Paul, his wicketkeeper son, is a product of the Club's junior system.
