

Quote Unquote

'Good facilities and good views.'

(a visiting spectator, 2003)

'We are very serious about trying to get a women's team started. The development of women's cricket is very important to us.'

(John Scholefield, club secretary, 1998)

'We may not have the highest ground in the league – Stones and Warley may pip us in this respect – but we've certainly got the coldest weather and the best views.'

(a member, 2003)

'We are looking forward to providing a future for all the youngsters and the people of Sowerby Bridge. We want to provide a permanent facility for the people of the town.'

(John Scholefield, club secretary, at the start of building work on the new pavilion in 1998)

'This is the fruition of an eight year plan to develop junior cricket at the club and to give the players the kind of facilities to be proud of.'

(John Scholefield, at the opening of the new pavilion, 1999)

'The victory ensured SBCI became one of only three clubs to win the Bradford League under 13 cup and league double in the same year.'

(Halifax Evening Courier, September 1998)