

Fartown cricket ground

Yorkshire v Kent

1880-7th of June

Yorkshire won the toss and chose to bat, spectators were anxious as they sat.

In came Lockwood and Grimshaw, A Popular pair hear the crowd roar.

Lockwood was missed easily by Collins in the slips,

The crowd watched on as the batters got to grips.

He settled down to play in his best form,

This could be the best he's ever performed.

Delayed by rain after the luncheon play,

Then at the lower end was bray.
