

YORKSHIRE V DERBYSHIRE

AT FARTOWN, 1 JUNE 1882

At 12.30 the players came out on to the pitch.
The roaring of the crowd made a sound so rich.
Derbyshire won the toss, Yorkshire still weren't afraid.

Peate bowled the corky oooooo! A maiden.
Johnstone swung for 2, what a clout.
Hall bowled, cracking the wicket, he's out!!

As the game carried on, the tension rose.
Swing, whack, POW watch how that ball flies.

At half-past four, Yorkshire have 158.
Derbyshire had lost with no-one left to step up to the plate

Yorkshire had won, they were victorious.
Wine bottles opened, they felt glorious.
