SCHOLES WIN THE TINKER CUP.

Scholes will have their name inscribed on the Tinker Cup for the first time as the outcome of Saturday's final with Penistone Netherfield at Shelley. The battle was "short, sharp, and decisive." Penistone took eighty minutes to get 87, then Scholes, with the loss of five wickets, knocked off the runs necessary for victory in forty-five minutes. P. Lee had a big part in the victory, as he hit lustily for 48, and captured three wickets for 48 runs. His colleague, R. Smith, had six for 38.
