

BARKISLAND CC-UNIVERSITY OF HUDDERSFIELD PARTNERSHIP

For the next six months, Barkisland Cricket Club has entered into a partnership with the University of Huddersfield, which involves the University sending one of their final year BA (Hons) Sports Journalism students to the club as a working journalist.

From now until late April, I will be writing for this website on a regular basis, providing news, interviews and information all about the club. Due to the extended length of time this placement will last for, it would be very much appreciated if members of the club could be of assistance in helping me do my job.

Therefore, if any of the players, backroom staff, or even supporters would like to be involved with this project, then please do not hesitate to contact me. The benefits will be twofold as it allows me to produce as good a portfolio of work as I can, while the more people that come forward the more that can be written about this club. You can have a direct influence on what appears on this site, and in turn contribute even more than you already do.

I can be contacted on my mobile, which is 07752 624727, or you can e-mail me at a0565107@hud.ac.uk.

I look forward to being able to meet as many of you as I can, and I hope we can as a group form a fruitful partnership.
