

1963

Meeting held at Hemel Hempstead February 15th 63
Mr. A. J. Butterworth in the chair.

The Secretary, Treasurer and nine others were present.

A letter was read from Mr. J. Dyson giving dates when he would be available for coaching and stating that his fee would be about £1 per hour. It was agreed that £1 per hr be paid him. Fourteen dates were selected and it was decided these should be forwarded for his acceptance. It was also decided that should he accept the position he be invited to meet the committee before the commencement of the season.

With regard to the scorers for the coming season Mr. A. Bentley and D. Haigh had intimated they were interested in the position. It was agreed they be appointed at the fee of 7/6 per match plus travelling expenses of 1/6 per away matches. The Treasurer reported that the premium for the fire policy was due on June 23rd He promised to have coverage made for members personal clothes after that date.

The Sailing Club had enquired whether it would be possible for them to hire the field for a cricket match and barbacue on a Saturday during the summer. It was agreed they be informed they could do so on the first Sat after the season ended, this being the first available day.

The question of the increase in the rating assessment arose and it was agreed that as soon as possible an objection be lodged with the C.V Council on the amount payable.

The next meeting was arranged for March 8th when it was hoped there would be a full attendance for the election of Captains.

no further action be taken as far as Mr Johnson was concerned. After a discussion as to whether to try and obtain someone else to coach Mr D. Kewley volunteered to take the junior players on Tues and Thurs evenings in an Hon capacity. He was thanked for this offer which was accepted and arrangements were to be made for a separate wicket to be prepared.

With regard to the attendance for practice on Tues & Thurs evenings after a long discussion it was decided no action be taken for the time being.

Agreed that transport for the junior XI to Lepton on May 13th be arranged.

D. J. Jentkinson 26/5/64.

Meeting held at Hemflow May 26th 64

Mr. D. Jentkinson in the chair.

The Secretary, Treasurer and nine others present.

It was reported that it may be possible if we so decided to obtain the services of Mr. J. Lilley a playing member of Uppermill C.C. as coach for the remainder of the season. After a discussion it was decided he should be approached and asked if he could coach the more senior players. The fee for each session to be no more than £2. It was unanimously agreed that Mr D. Kewley should undertake the junior players coaching as at present.

After a report of suspected wood-rot in the bat front it was agreed that Mr F. Ashburn inspect and report back to the next meeting which was arranged for a week's time.

Meeting held at Hemplow April 13th 65.

M. J. Jenkinson in the chair

The Secretary, Treasurer and eight others present

Further letters were read from P. Hill to C. regarding the change of venue. They had agreed to our request that the 2nd vs 4th match should be played on July 10th and were trying to obtain a neutral ground. They reported that they had informed the umpires of the change but as there was no mention of the league's permission being obtained the Sec promised to contact the league Sec as soon as possible.

The Sec reported that after reporting to the police on the unauthorised use of the field by children he had had a visit from P. C. Haigh. He had been informed by him that the only thing the police could do was to suggest we had notices posted warning that trespassers damaging the ground or property would be prosecuted. The Sec said that such notices had now been ordered from the printers. P. C. Haigh promised that if he saw any children on the field he would send them away and warn them of the action the club was likely to take.

Our League Reps had been asked by the Junior League Sec for any names of Junior players suitable for consideration for the league Junior X1. It was agreed that the names of Wood and S. Lunn be given.

After due consideration it was decided that Committee meetings should continue on Tuesday evenings for the time being and commence as soon as possible.

The next meeting was arranged for April 27th.

1966

Meeting held at Hemplow Feb 25th 66.

Mr D. Jenkinson in the chair.

The Secretary, Treasurer and eight others present.

The Secretary reported that the Stewards would be willing to give any help required by the Road Safety Committee when they held their rally on May 15th. This information would be passed on to them.

It was reported that our present motor cutter could possibly be set for a closed cut. An inspection on this was to be made as soon as daylight permitted.

Mr R. Hewson asked for volunteers to scrape the walls in the main room part to them being decorated. As insufficient help was promised it was decided to proceed with the painting of the ceiling only at this stage. A pale green colour was agreed for this, the exact shade to be decided after seeing a colour chart.

Mr D. Jenkinson reported that he had decided not to promote the Development Fund draw this year. After a short discussion Mr P. Oldfield said he would consider whether to take over the position and inform officials on Sunday next. Mr L. Mussett volunteered to assist him when required if he decided to do so.

It was decided to hold the next meetings on March 11th and 25th. At one of these the Captains and Selection Committee were to be elected.
