

WHHO'S

WHHO

MARTIN FARRAR

Secretary and stalwart: right-arm slow bowler and left-hand batsman.

JASON DE BOER

De Boer is obviously a pivotal figure at the Club.

A special poll on the Club's website asked all surfers a big question:

Rumours abound that De Exciting scored this week! Was it with a) a well-endowed blonde, b) a voluptuous redhead, or c) a delectable brunette?' The man with the European name also featured in the special 'player profiles' section:

Jason 'EXCITING' De Boer.

Age: 101.

Right-hand bat, occasional leg spin, and generally calm, modest individual.

MICHAEL GRIMES

Michael Grimes was a founder member of the Club.

He attended the Huddersfield Association League meeting at which the Club put its case for admission into the competition. He was still an active member of the Club 17 years later.

HAROLD AINLEY

Harold Ainley skippered the 1st XI during a remarkably successful period in the early 1980s.

Many trophies were won in these years, including a hat-trick of Huddersfield Association League titles.

STUART BURNS

Stuart Burns was a founder member of the Club who went on captain the 2nd XI in the 1980s.

JOHN HAROLD

John Harold is a stalwart of the Club – player, groundsman and official.

He is also a former President of the Huddersfield Cricket Association.