The Sowerby Bridge Club have won both divisions, the first team the second time in succession, and the second team the fifth; a marvellous performance.

It may perhaps be taken as a sign of the quickened health with which the King has come back from Marienbad that he went to a theatre on Saturday evening when he had only been a few hours in London.

A person answering the description of a man "wanted" for the daring robbery with violence at a mansion at New Malden is said to have been seen leaving the scene of the outrage in a motor-car. This is peculiarly interesting in view of the recent
