coming over with a clean sheet.

That we have some help in the ground for a longer time and that we do not make the matter up by to be responsible for the ground being kept in a good state as we are not to be held responsible for the ground which was considered not a great deal to look after so long as it would be responsible for the ground generally.
Mr Perry Howarth & Mr J. Salway were elected and both these gentlemen were held to be responsible for the above at a remuneration of £5.0.0 each total £10.0.0 until the end of season 1921.

Rev. G. G. G.
