

Some other Illingworth-based cricket teams (taken from A.Hardcastle: Lost)

Mount Zion (1907). Ground simply given as "Illingworth", but presumably at the church on Per Lane.

Illingworth Wesleyans (1908 and 1917-22). Nonconformist League members, 1909-15, then joined the Halifax Association from 1923 to 1942.

Illingworth Wesleyans (1909-15). Previously Amateur League, 1908, to where they returned, 1917-22.

Providence (1923-35). Team based at the Wesleyan/Methodist church at Illingworth, though the earlier team in the Amateur League had been referred to as Providence Congregational School. Played at Slow Field, Cousin Lane.

Calverts (1925-29). Works team from the Illingworth-based worsted spinning firm which closed in 1970. Played at nearby Cousin Lane.

Ramsdens (1929-39 and 1948-49). The third brewery side to join the league in the period, they played first at Wrigley Hill, Illingworth, then in the '40s at Box Trees and Roils Head.

Salem U.M.C. (1947-51). Halifax-based church team who had been in the Nonconformist League from 1932 until it closed down in 1939. Ground at Pharaoh Lane, Illingworth. An earlier Salem team had appeared in the Amateur League.

Denfords (1951-64). Team from the firm's Sports Club who played at The Barracks in their first season and later at Pharaoh Lane, Illingworth. They won the league title in 1958 and 1959, having been joint-winners in 1956, and the Collinson Cup in 1959.

Illingworth A.Y.P.A. (1952-56). Ground at Roils Head. Became Illingworth Youth Club in 1955.

Illingworth Libs (1977-86). Liberal Club team playing at Roils Head. Initially withdrew in 1982, being unable to find sufficient players, but then merged with Crossley's to become New Illingworth Libs.
