

HOME SWEET HOME

In 1959 The Combs looked like this:

Today it looks like this:

The clubhouse is an all-purpose bungalow building...

...with a hearty welcome for all visitors.

It's not just cricket and bowling that is played at The Combs, but also football and archery.

The clubhouse is also the headquarters of Thornhill Male Voice Choir.

There are many other interesting sights. The black and white scoreboard...

...plus many items of ground-maintenance equipment. This enabled the Club to net the League's 'best-kept ground' award in 2000.

And that's not forgetting the plethora of signs and notices:
