

Cricket Teas Around Calderdale and Kirklees – 2008

DATE/CLUB	TEA ROOM	SAVOURIES	DESSERTS	HIGHLIGHT	BIZARRE FACT
19 Apr Illingworth	Upstairs in pavilion – kitchen plus dining area. Great aromas and lots of space	Mix of open sandwiches with tomato and cucumber garnish, and sausage rolls	Wide array – from sponge cake to melon	On a cold day – beautifully-warmed sausage rolls	Soup was served to the players during the 1 st and 2 nd innings drinks breaks

20 Apr Triangle

Tea set out on top of the precious snooker table in the billiard room

Huge selection – from coleslaw and potato salad to salmon, all kinds of meat and pickled onions

Lots of variety of cake (including toffee cheesecake), plus grapes and a cheese board

The luscious salmon

Eight bona fide tea ladies were present on the day

26 Apr Hanging
Heaton

Teas served from the spacious kitchen – with the players' food laid out near the snooker table

Variety of mouth-watering cold plus hot food, including mince and onion
pie, potatoes and mushy peas

Very good variety of cakes

The gravy on the main meal – thick
and luxurious

A mother-and-daughter team
were serving food

26 Apr Birstall

A dedicated kitchen and tea room sits by the scoreboard at the entrance to the ground

Traditional tea

Cakes and chocolate biscuits

The very cheerful and happy tea lady on duty

Birstall stalwarts June Harris and Jean Sidle always sit on the bench outside the tea room on matchdays

3 May Sowerby Bridge	A busy kitchen and an adjacent dining area	Tuna, ham and egg rolls with a variety of salad accessories	Cakes, biscuits and fruit salad	The number of sandwiches you get as part of a tea (four)...and the gorgeous fruit salad	The club distribute a three-page document entitled 'A Guide to Cricket Teas at SBCC' to all tea ladies
-------------------------	--	---	---------------------------------	---	--

