

WESLEY AND WARLEY

Duncan Hall on his early days

I came here in 1977 when the club was in the Central Yorkshire League. The Heavy Woollen section was split up into four divisions – the travelling to far-flung places wasn't a problem.

I played cricket for Wesley in the Halifax Association and for Warley Under-18s. In those days it was Under-18s or nothing as that was the extent of junior cricket. I remember the Maypole Inn (above) being a focal-point for Warley cricketers!

When my family moved to Luddendenfoot a guy called George Carter asked if I'd like to play for Sowerby St. Peter's. So I played for them and then later Mytholmroyd.
