

ALFRED SYKES

Alfred Sykes was the first club president, from 1860 onwards. He helped to found the club and then led it to many of its early victories. He passed away in 1915 after many years of loyal service.