

PRESIDENT AND CHAIRMAN

David Armitage on club people

It's a great advantage to have David Normanton as league president. He keeps us informed of developments and gives us the odd steer when it's necessary.

Peter McDonnell is club chairman. He's a charismatic guy and has the gift of the gab! He's also a good motivator – which is ideal. Matthew Jones is 1st XI captain and groundsman. He's a young lad and lives locally.

Doris Kenworthy has been a key person at the club. She was a stalwart on the teas side. Her husband John was a significant figure – he helped establish the Sunday Section of the Halifax League. Linda Ellis, wife of Malcolm, and Catherine Normanton, wife of David, have also worked very hard in the tea room.
