

SUPPLEMENT TO THE HUDDERSFIELD EXAMINER, SATURDAY

BY UNION.

No. 1.
Here Rhoad found little in the first half. However, in three tries for the ball with one of the placemen was more evenly contained the upper hand, by Bottomley enabled 13 tries (14 points) to nil.

ARTHUR SHAW, Hon. Sec.

A meeting of the committee of this league was held on Saturday evening at the Queen Hotel, Mr. B. Langrick, Armitage Bridge, in the chair. All the clubs were represented. It was decided that Kirkheaton, as the League champions, should be allowed to select their own design for the gold medals, and that the club should be allowed to grant six extra medals to players who have taken part in the competition, thus making twenty medals in all, with those given by the League. It was arranged for the annual meeting, revision of rules, arrangement of the fixtures, &c., to be held shortly.

Kirkheaton have come with a rush at the end of the season, chiefly through the assistance rendered by G. H. Hirst, who in the last two matches has the following splendid record:—

O.	M.	R.	W.
15-1	7	13	10

On Saturday, against Golcar, who were out for 19, he took four wickets for 2 runs, three in the first four balls of the match. W. Rhodes had the other six for 15 runs. Against Primrose Hill, on Monday, Hirst and Rhodes again bowled finely, and the Roses were dismissed for 23, a total that the pair named rubbed off without loss. Hirst had six wickets for 11 runs, and Rhodes four for 8.
