THE banner says it all — Primrose Hill Rule OK — as Huddersfield Cricket League chairman Phillip Oldfield (left) presents the Hinchliffe Cup to first-team captain Colin Jowett, whose team won the Section "B" championship. Success ran throughout the club during the summer with the second team winning their championship and the Under 17s clinching a league and Walker Cup double. Gordon Scott also won the first-team league batting prize and second-team skipper Joe Russell won both the second elevens batting and fielding prizes. Outstanding batting prospect John Webster won three individual club awards last night. The junior team captain won the junior batting and catching prizes and the Joe Greaves Trophy as the most outstanding junior. Simon Peacock won the bowling prize, Stephen Keogh the fielding award, and the Gordon Holroyd Trophy for the most improved junior went to Ian Tunnacliffe. Under 13 awards went to Robert Kirk (batting), Michael Morris (bowling), Chris Hall (catching) and Salvatore Cremona (fielding). Junior prizes were presented by Junior League Section "D" secretary Mr Allan Armstrong. Senior prizes will be awarded at the club's dinner-dance next month. # Rain wrecks final programme

Johnson's double delight

HOLMFIRTH clinched their sixth league and cup double without having to bowl a ball on Saturday when the Huddersfield Cricket League's final programme was decimated by the weather.

And Primrose Hill's first team completed a title treble when their match against Shepley — the only team who could deny them the Section "B" championship was abandoned. The Hill's second team have won the Senior Cup as champions and the juniors have also won their section.

In fact, only two games were completed with Lockwood taking three points at Paddock and Kirkheaton losing all four to Bradley Mills after they had made a gambling declaration. The points count because another two games also started.

Kirkheaton's defeat cost them the Hopkinson Trophy awarded for the most points gained over the last six matches. Golcar win it by virtue of a superior scoring average.

The weather left everyone with a sense of anticlimax. Even Holmfirth skipper Mark Johnson, whose side finished two points clear of Elland and Kirkburton, admitted:

"We would rather have played against Meltham and had a chance of winning Section 'A' in style."

Johnson, whose side had earlier won the Sykes Cup, was presented with the Byrom Shield at Meltham on Saturday by Paul Burroughes, manager of the Ladbroke Mercury Motor Inn, who have poured £300 into the league this summer.

The 22-year-old skipper had double reason to celebrate because he has been awarded a one-year contract with Yorkshire.

Johnson, who is staying with Holmfirth, goes to South Africa shortly for a five-month spell coaching for the Transvaal Cricket Council and playing for Zoo Park.

Waiting, without success, for the rain to stop—Shepley captain Colin Shaw and Primrose Hill skipper Colin Jowett. Their Section 'B' match had to be abandoned, leaving the Hill as champions and Shepley runners-up.
