

ALONZO DRAKE

Played for Yorkshire from 1909 to 1918, scoring 4,816 first-class runs and taking 482 wickets, including 10 for 35 against Somerset in 1914.

First appeared for Honley in 1906, and won the Huddersfield & District League batting prize in 1907, averaging 53.00. He continued to play for the club when his first-class commitments allowed, until his early death in 1919.

Huddersfield Examiner