

RICHARD HIRST

Richard Hirst began his association with Honley Cricket Club as a junior in 1959. His greatest moment as a player came in 1970, when he was a member of the Paddock Shield-winning second XI.

After his playing days ended in 1978, Richard continued to serve the club. Among other things, he managed the under-13 and under -17 teams, acted as a trustee and sat on the ground committee. Before his untimely death in 2003, Richard also began researching the club's history. The work he did has proved invaluable for us, as has the help of his son Tim.
