

FRIENDLY CLUB

Bob Edinburgh on becoming involved

I became involved at Cartworth Moor through friends. I worked with Stuart Clayton and actually played for the same works team as him.

He encouraged me to play at Cartworth – and that says a lot about the club. I think I joined about 20 years ago.

My mother is 91. She still enjoys coming up here and watching games.