

NURSERY FOR THE BIG BOYS

Roy Lyons on the club

As a junior, I played at Todmorden (below) and Walsden, but I got in eventually at Bridgeholme. I suppose it's a bit of a nursery club for the big boys nearby.

There are several Asian players in the Bridgeholme side today – this has been a change.

Me and my pals are Bridgeholme through and through. I come down to watch most home games – I think I need to get a life!
