

KEITH AND ZOE

Roy Lyons on two significant people

Keith Hudson (back row, far left) is the main man at the club today – if it wasn't for him there wouldn't be a club.

Zoe Parkinson was a significant female cricketer at Bridgeholme. She played for the juniors and the 2nd XI.

I think the club had to get special dispensation to play her in what were normally all-male teams.