

PART OF MY LIFE

Sheila Senior on volunteering

Being a tea lady is a voluntary thing. But there's always someone on hand to help out. Doing them has become part of my life.

We always get thanked at the end-of-season presentation evening. We maybe even receive some chocolates as a gift!

We donate all the money we make through teas.