Malcolm Heeley on life in the Forces

I've always been a cricket fan. I played at junior school and junior level, but also played a lot of football and rugby.

I played football for Milnsbridge Baptists and got to play rugby league at the old Fartown ground now and again. My grandson's just starting out now with his sporting career.

I also did a lot of sport when I was in the Forces. I could run 100 yards in 10.2 seconds. I also did the marathon, but never played cricket, funnily enough.

I was born in Netherton and moved to Lowerhouses. But when I got married I lived in the centre of Milnsbridge, and that's why I played soccer for Milnsbridge Baptists.
