

TIME FOR TEA!

Malcolm Heeley on a kind neighbour

The Walkers Arms is in the corner. I don't pop in there when I'm working because I stopped drinking 40 years ago!

But there's a nice woman on the other side of the road who pops out with a pot of tea when she can see I'm working in the field. It's thirsty work and the gesture is much appreciated! It's like old times.

I live close by and there's a little gateway from near where I live up to the ground. I'm ideally placed really. I enjoy working on the field. It's quiet and peaceful.
