

Phil Geering

Won Cleckheaton Motors Sunday Cricket League wicketkeeping prize in this unnamed year

Tim Heley of Radio Leeds presents Cleckheaton Motors Sunday Cricket League trophy to Colin Fretwell of Mirfield Parish Cavaliers at the league's presentation dinner at Prospect Hall Hotel on Saturday.

Record breaking innings honoured

A RECORD breaking batting performance by former Heckmondwike player Russell Clarke was honoured at the annual dinner and prize presentation of the Cleckheaton Motors Sunday Cricket League, held at the Prospect Hall Hotel, Cleckheaton, on Saturday.

Russell, who now plays with Mirfield Parish Cavaliers, was presented with a special award to mark his achievement of making the highest individual total in the history of the league, a magnificent 255 not out against Walton CC.

TROPHIES AND PRIZES

The dinner was attended by over 100 people and was presided over by League President Mr Ian Cawthra.

League's sponsors Cleckheaton Motors were also represented. The guest speaker was Mr Tim Healey of BBC Radio Leeds. He presented the champions Mirfield Parish Cavaliers with their trophy.

Runners-up were Lidget Green CC. Illingworth St. Mary's CC won the Scandura Trophy.

Awards for the 1988 season were:— Championship Trophy: Mirfield Parish Cavaliers CC; runners-up Trophy: Lidget Green CC; Scandura Trophy: Illingworth St. Mary's CC; Individual Batting: Russell Clarke (Mirfield Parish Cavaliers); Individual Bowling:

Bob Dawson (Lidget Green) Fielding Prize: David Dunn (Lidget Green); Wicketkeeping Prize: Phil Geering (Mirfield Parish Cavaliers).