

Title success at first attempt

MIRFIELD Parish Church celebrated their first season in the Leeds and District League by clinching the second division title following two fine wins over the weekend.

On Saturday they cruised to a ten-wicket victory at Garforth, dismissing the home team for 93 and knocking off the runs in only 22.3 overs.

Fretwell (5-30) and Woolard (3-16) tore the heart out of the Garforth innings and Parish openers Laycock (42 not out) and Lumb (45 not out) were both in great form.

Laycock went without scoring against Leeds Police on Sunday but Lumb (46) was again in good touch and with Woolard hitting 35 and Fretwell an unbeaten 39 Parish made light work of a target of 136.

Earlier Fretwell (3-30) had reduced Leeds Police to 58-6 and although a stand of 78 between Spark and Chippendale gave the scoreline some respectability the last four wickets fell without a run being added.
