

THE WEATHER caused New Road's first cricket fixture of the season to be abandoned without a ball being bowled, but the players were nevertheless in cheerful mood—at least, they were for our cameraman. Left to right: K. Holroyd, J. S. Ramsden, R. Leeming, B. Shepherd, A. Heywood (captain), G. W. Hargreaves, D. Shaw, J. R. Cardwell, D. J. Garner, R. Arnold and T. Bottomley.

INSPECTING with dubious looks the area of the New Road Cricket Club ground at Badger Hill, Rastrick, where a larger sewer has recently been laid. With umpires John D. Miller and Jim Lord are the New Road captain and vice-captain, Alan Heywood (left) and Trevor Bottomley. Because of the disturbed condition of this part of the field it has had to be roped off the playing area thus being much reduced.
