

BURNLEY AND BACUP

Norman Stansfield on Todmorden's local rivals

Burnley and Bacup are probably our nearest neighbours in the Lancashire League in terms of geography but I wouldn't say the rivalry with them is intense.

East Lancs are probably furthest away. And then there's Walsden – just down the road but they play in the Central Lancashire League and we hardly ever play them, except in friendlies.

Todmorden play in the Lancashire League but I think a lot of us see ourselves as a Yorkshire club. The geography is strange. We certainly get a bit of friendly abuse on account of this!
