

STUART, THOMAS, FREDDIE AND EVIE

Betty Whittaker on her family connections

I was born in Somerset and came to Todmorden via Durham. So I'm an adopted Todmorden person!

My son-in-law - Stuart Priestley – plays in the 1st XI and my grandsons have also started playing: Thomas and Freddie.

I've also got a granddaughter, Evie, who's involved. She plays with the boys in the Under-11s – it's mixed cricket at that level.

So our family is pretty involved at the club and it's a fundamental part of my life. I suppose at one point in time I wasn't a cricket person but now I'm immersed in it!
