Susan Whitehead (centre) on helping the club

My original connection with the club was my son David – who played, and is still playing, for the 2nd XI. In fact, he's 51 now and he's said he'll be retiring at the end of this season. My grandson Joseph plays now as well – he's the 2nd XI wicketkeeper.

I work with Valerie Smith and Doreen Storey in the tea room. Doreen and I have done teas for 30 years each and Val for the last four or so. We're the regular tea ladies – with others helping too. We do 1st XI, 2nd XI and also big events like Yorkshire and Lancashire 2nd XI games.

My husband Leslie helps at the club too. He'll always give us a hand in the tea room if we need anything doing.
