

DAVE, DENNIS AND FRIENDS

Marie Beaumont on some club people

Dave Hirst has been a key figure at the club. He was a local footballer who became heavily involved; in fact I'd say that at some points he carried the club on his own.

He put a lot of effort in and is still very much involved. Dave's wife Bronwen also does a lot at the club.

The first captain of the new Southowram CC was Dennis Parry (above) – and he's still very much involved with the club. And Peter and Joyce Jowett played a significant role from the early 1980s onwards.
