

FAMILY AFFAIR

Geoff Manger on his background

I was born in 1938 in West Vale. My father played cricket for Elland. Cricket was definitely in the family!

I went to Crossley & Porter School (above) in 1950 and used to play cricket for Mytholmroyd before joining Old Crossleyans.

I've been a player, official and committee member – and also captain of the 2nd XI.