

ENGLAND STAR!

Geoff Manger on Brian Moore

The England rugby union player Brian Moore played here. He was obviously a rugby player first and foremost but he wasn't a bad cricketer at all. He was a good batter and fielder and a fine all-round sportsman.

He was at school here in the early 1980s before his rugby career took off. His rugby career eventually took him to Nottingham and Harlequins, and in time he became an England regular.

I think he had three seasons of cricket here. He still comes back occasionally and we've got loads of his rugby shirts framed in the clubhouse!

When I was captain of the Old Crocs 2nd XI I actually played with Brian – that's my claim to fame!
