

BIG NAMES

John McDonald on some famous players

We've had some big names at Holmfirth over the years. Stuart Fletcher used to play for the club but I don't think he took that many wickets.

We also had one of the Armanaths from India playing here. He was an all-rounder and made a big impression – he'd take four or five wickets most games and hit the ball out of the ground quite regularly!

Tony Gray was a very fast bowler from the West Indies. He was 6ft 8 and would intimidate batsmen with his pace and power. And Andrew Hudson, from South Africa, was a very fine batsman and fielder. I think he opened the batting for South Africa.

Mike Bocarro started here – and he's now playing for us again, aged 63! He also played for Honley and across in Lancashire and was a good professional. I think he's got a knee problem at the moment.

Allan Lamb came here when he was 17 or 18. Today our star player is Iqbal Senior.
