John McDonald on the club pavilion

The pavilion is a handsome building – upstairs you'll see lots of lots of famous team photos on the wall. I think there are plans for redeveloping the pavilion.

Adjacent to the pavilion is Longbottom's Foundry. At the other end of the ground are two football pitches – they're nothing to do with the cricket club.

Today there aren't that many spectators at games – people have so many other things to do on Saturday afternoons. I remember the club having quite a few supporters in the 1980s and 1990s.

The club has also lost some of its volunteer workers in recent years.
