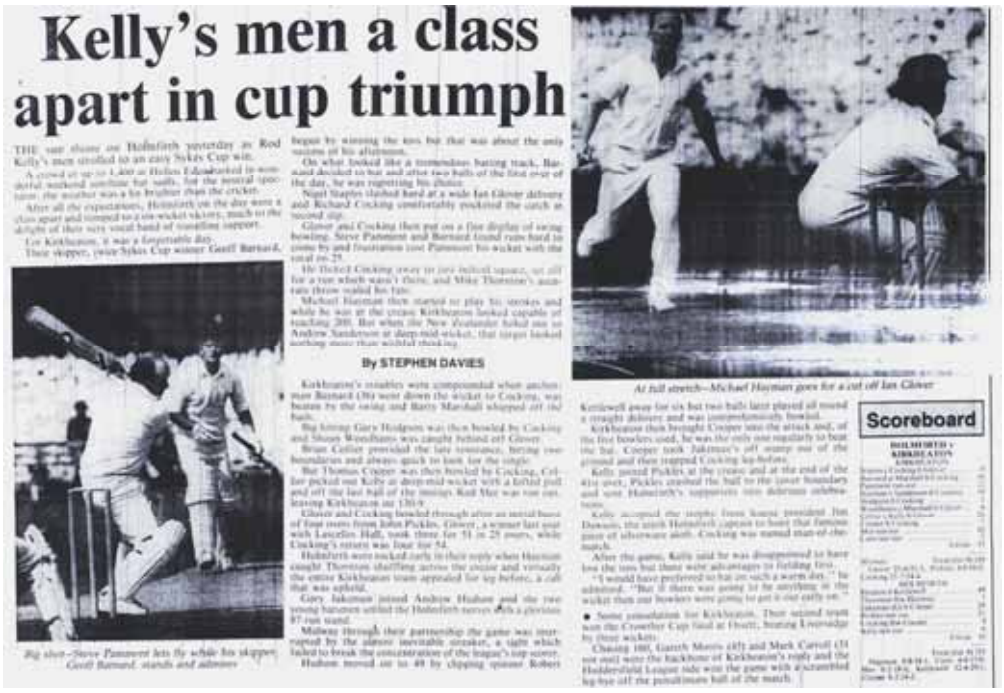
ON THE RISE AGAIN

John McDonald on the club's on-field fortunes

Holmfirth is changing as a place. A lot of people are coming to live here and many local mills have been converted into flats.

I think Holmfirth CC are on the rise again after a few years in the doldrums. Their last Sykes Cup final was 1988 (below) – the 1990s were pretty barren.



Kelly's men a class apart in cup triumph

By STEPHEN DAVIES

Big shot—Steve Pamment lets fly while his skipper, Geoff Barnard, stands and admires

At full stretch—Michael Hayman goes for a cut off Ian Glover

Scoreboard

But they got promoted in 2007. However, they could go down again in 2008!

The standard has tailed off over the years. Kids are more interested in football – there aren't enough young 'uns taking an interest in cricket.