

CHIEF TEA LADY

Julie Heaton on her involvement at the club

My husband Ian is very much involved with junior cricket at Upper Hopton and I suppose I'm chief tea lady!

I became involved in the club through Ian. He played and my kids played.

The older women at the club tend to take a back seat because their husbands don't play anymore. We have a few female supporters but not many women who might like to do teas.