

Town soccer men drop in at cricket club ceremony

THE newly-redecorated Dewsbury Moorlands Cricket Club clubhouse was officially opened by Mr. Philip Akroyd, the Dewsbury delegate on the Yorkshire County Cricket Club committee, recently.

Other guests at the opening included Steve Smith and Keith Hanvey, who have a close association with the club through its annual charity cricket match against Huddersfield Town AFC.

The cricket club plays at Mirfield Memorial Park. Since moving there in April, the members have modified and redecorated the bar area and, with help from local carpet manufacturers CV Carpets, they have recarpeted the lounge, following damage to the original due to a roof leak.

The 1988 season will be

At the official opening of the redecorated Dewsbury Moorlands Cricket Club are (from left): Huddersfield Town youth team manager Steve Smith, Moorlands' president Gordon Newsam, Yorkshire CC committee member for Dewsbury Philip Akroyd and Huddersfield Town commercial manager Keith Hanvey. — (N.S.).

a challenging one for the club, as it has entered the Huddersfield Central League after many years in the Dewsbury and District League.

The club hopes to run an Under 15 team in the Batley and Dewsbury Boys Cricket League.

● Overthorpe CC have also joined the Huddersfield Central League after leaving the Dewsbury and District League.

Town's club captain Paul Jones (right)—receiving a cheque last night for £210 from Dewsbury Moorlands Cricket Club president Jack Lumb. The money was raised at a cricket match between Town and the Moorlands Club in the summer as part of Jones's benefit year