

SUPPORTING THE CLUB

Ann Greenwood on women at the club

There are quite a number of women at the club, mainly because we've got so many juniors. I think we've got 111 in total, and obviously the kids' parents take an interest and come along.

We've got a female coach – Julia Cockcroft – and four or five women on the club committee including Julia, Mandy, Sue and Amanda. They do good work, especially where fundraising is concerned. Unfortunately we don't have any girls wanting to play or a team for girls.

I wouldn't say the women involved are massive cricket fans. They just want to be involved and support the club. Often, their kids are involved and their involvement is a natural follow-on.
