

GREEN AND GOLF

Phil McKirgan on the village

I'm from Hampshire originally. So I'm relatively new to the village.

What else is there in East Bierley? A first school near the green, a church and post office - that is actually in danger of closing.

There's also a pub – the New Inn – and a golf club, which is probably the biggest social institution in the village.