

BORN AND BRED

Derek Pickford on the village

Denby is a small traditional village, and Denby CC is a small village club.

I was born and bred here. I was a farmer. Farming was hard work but as a farmer you come to appreciate the local climate.

In the village there's the parish church, school and pub. There is no connection between the cricket club and the parish church.