

West Indian Test star ends Hopton's hopes

WEST INDIAN Test cricketer Collis King was a shock addition to Calder Grove's Sheard Cup team on Sunday.

King, a former Glamorgan county star and one of the country's leading all-rounders, played for the Wakefield side against Upper Hopton.

Holidaying in this country, he is staying with Calder Grove team member Norman Hazell. He was invited to play and certainly made his mark.

Batting at number five, King scored 17 boundaries in an innings of 94 before he was bowled by Upper Hopton's Foster. He took the home side's score to 188 and then bowled out five batsmen for just 40 runs.

Upper Hopton were dismissed for 103.

Overthorpe had an easy passage into the next round of the cup when they scored 241

Section "D" match and it ended in a tie. Both teams scored 104. Best performance of the game came from Howden Clough's T. Wood who took six wickets for 31 runs.

Another great bowling achievement came in the Batley Muslims. Whitley Lower Section "A" match. Muslims batted first and Whitley's Bellwood dismissed eight batsmen for just 24 runs.
