

Former Derbyshire and England wicketkeeper Bob Taylor, in the news this summer on his sensational return to the international cricket scene in the Lord's Cornhill Test against New Zealand, was the guest speaker at Holmbridge Cricket Club's sportsman's dinner at Fernleigh Restaurant last night. The dinner, to raise funds for ground improvements, was organised by president Bob Gapper who is pictured (second right) with, from left, Clr Bob Mortimer, a former Holmbridge player, Taylor, and Huddersfield comedian Ceddie Beaumont
