

Trees mark the boundary

GOMERSAL Cricket Club and Kirklees Council's Countryside Service have joined forces to bring a brighter face to the cricket field in years to come. Eric Brown, the Heavy Woolen Countryside Officer, provided the club with 60 native trees and shrubs to plant on the boundary edge after he received a request from Spen councillor Harry Fox. And joining forces with Mr Brown (left) and Coun Fox
