

CARIBBEAN VISITORS

The School of Human & Health Sciences, University of Huddersfield, hosted a special dinner for visitors from the University of the West Indies. In the future there is the possibility of collaboration between the two institutions in several areas, including cricket history. The University of the West Indies is home to the prestigious Centre for Cricket Research, led by Sir Hilary Beckles.

